Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The State University of Indiana: The Causes of Its Want of Prosperity Considered Gentlemen - There is a general recognition of this fact, Unit the State University him now reached a crisis, demanding a wide departure from its past management. Coming with President Wylie to it, when he became its President in 1829, I graduated in the class of 1831, and soon after became a citizen of Bloomington. Warmly attached to the University, I have closely watched the causes which have depressed it for more than half a century, and can no longer remain in opposition to these causes as a private individual, but must assume a more public position by placing before you, the representatives of the people, what I know are the true causes of its want of prosperity. I do so in the pamphlet I now lay before you, hoping that, old as I am, I may still live to see my Alma Mater assume its true place, as the successful and honored bead of that system of public instruction, which should...
