By Inette Miller

Infinity Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 220 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. What Does Happily Ever After Look Like IOKEPA is a Native Hawaiian, who relinquished everything I worked for all my life to embrace his aboriginal identity and reawaken his ancestral culture. INETTE IS A Jewish woman, who surrendered a privileged writer s life to join him, camping on Hawaiian beaches with little food and no money, and walking the paths of his ancestors. TOGETHER, they packed all they owned into three suitcases and began their ancestor-driven Return Voyage across America. Their message: what Native Hawaiians lived for 12, 000 years- ritual practices that prevented war- have profound implications for the 21st century. This item ships from multiple locations.
